STATEWIDE SPECIAL ELECTION
CANDIDATE STATEMENT FORM

Candidate's Name: Jeff Rainforth

Candidate Statement (250 word limit):

I am not for Sale at any Price. My candidacy is endorsed by the Reform Party, founded by Ross Perot. I do not take special interest money. The Reform Party was created to balance budgets, pay down our debts, stop American jobs from being sent overseas, halt wasteful government spending, and promote campaign finance reform. [REDACTED] Our party has preached this message for 10 years. I will put that message into action. As Governor I will: put corporations and lobbyists on notice that California is not for sale; Attack government waste and fraud which costs the state billions; Promote IRV, and campaign finance reform; Eliminate agencies that duplicate federal or local functions; Take insurance companies out of doctor patient health care decisions; Meet with state employees to make their workplaces more productive; Require the state to "buy American"; Promote alternative energy including California's abundant ocean power; Void outrageous energy contracts signed by the current governor. There will be no new taxes, spending programs, or pork barrel projects; The budget will be balanced on time; Corporations will pay heavily for exporting our jobs, and importing cheap labor. There is no other candidate. I am the one. People first, Interests last. I have no price. Rainforth for Governor.

If 20,000 of you are fed up enough to register Reform, and 200 more will run as Reform candidates, we will replace those who have exported your jobs, squandered your money, and bankrupted the state. Your immediate response is vital.

OCTOBER 7, 2003 STATEWIDE SPECIAL ELECTION CANDIDATE STATEMENT FORM

Candidate's Name: Daniel C. (Danny) Ramirez

Candidate Statement (250 word limit):

I believe the family is the most important institution in society. The prosperity, happiness, and welfare of California are founded on the strength and success of our families. I ask you to elect me Governor so together we can protect and strengthen our families and our economic and social prosperity.

My wife Lourdes and I have been married for 35 years. Our family is our greatest joy. My 37 years of experience founding and managing a business that exports American-made buses to Mexico, has thoroughly educated me in the economic realities necessary to restore California's fiscal health. As a former Marine, I understand the need for public safety and security. We must protect the family from influences and organizations that attack it. I will support the rights of fathers and mothers in the education and protection of their children. I will oppose providing taxpayers' dollars to organizations which harm families, including those providing abortions and birth control drugs and devices to minor girls without parents' knowledge. I vigorously support promoting a ballot initiative, www.tell-a-parent.org, that will assure that a parent must be notified before a daughter - even as young as 13 - can undergo a taxpayer-funded abortion. I will clean up waste and extravagance in government and oppose tax increases on necessities such as your family car. I will oppose all that weakens and impoverishes the families of our beloved state.

I wish to serve you and the State of my birth, and I ask for your vote.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FORM

Candidate's Name: DANIEL W. RICHARDS

Candidate Statement (250 word limit):

I am a 25 year resident of California. Like many of you I have found our State to be a land of great opportunity and tremendous diversity. I'm thankful for the success I've found but troubled by the shrinking window of opportunity for so many of our citizens. No Governor can serve 100% of the people to their total satisfaction. A Governor should set a moderate course. We should reduce the State Budget by 12% across the board. This will provide a balanced budget and force State government to live within their revenues – NO NEW TAXES.

Children in California should never go hungry or suffer any form of abuse. We are a fortunate and bountiful society that must not lose site of those who cannot help themselves. It is our obligation to protect and nurture them. I am pro-education. We cannot expect excellence in education without appropriate compensation to those who deal with our children daily.

I believe in the 3 strike law. 3 strikes are 3 FELONY convictions.

The State cannot abandon the elderly, weak and disadvantaged. Our State health care system must provide adequate service to all of our residents.

California must regain its leadership position as a business friendly State. Our anti-business policies are driving good paying jobs out of California to our neighboring States.

I have been married for 30 years and have a 25 year-old daughter. I own a successful small business and would appreciate your support. God Bless America!

STATEWIDE SPECIAL ELECTION
CANDIDATE STATEMENT FORM

Candidate's Name: David Laughing Horse Robinson

Candidate Statement (250 word limit):

I, David Laughing Horse Robinson, will be a Governor that treats hard working people like first class citizens. My political background and experience involves protecting traditional family values, education, jobs and thriving communities. I have done this at the University where I work and within my California Native American tribe.

I believe you start with the children, support expenditures that keep them safe and well educated while emphasizing self-confidence and learning the skills necessary to live their dreams. The entrepreneurial spirit thrives in our youth. They will create our businesses of the future. Education is the last place to cut. It improves quality of life for everyone in our communities.

My first policies will address taking control of our state economy. We need to see the benefit of our vast resources here, not in Texas or some other state or country. Too much revenue is lost when corporations move their main offices elsewhere after securing lucrative rights to extract our resources. This results in a loss of corporate taxes and often puts us in the position of purchasing our own resources back at a higher price, reducing personal income and weakening our workforce and small businesses.

I believe financial decisions at the state level should include both common sense and integrity, putting our communities first. I am the first California Native American to run for state office, descended from several generations elected to oversee the welfare of our tribe. I do not support the recall of Governor Davis.

am a grocer who, with his family, specializes in selling cigarettes to adults who make their own decisions. Customers tell me they want no new taxes, no stupid new laws, and for someone to step up to get the work of government done.

What qualifies me to be your Governor is that this political base, formed first of smokers with many different political persuasions, united in the belief that we must respect the freedoms of others in order to have freedoms of our own, combined with others seeking sensible, realistic actions by a new Governor, will garner the largest number of votes.

My friend's construction work is stopped because of State permits. My family's business faces another huge increase in workers compensation costs even though our safety record has improved. My neighbors cut back staff to avoid taxes and paperwork. California has become uncompetitive compared to other states.

I am optimistic, with the calm confidence of a Christian with four aces. Government isn't like business. Good government needs consensus. I can work with Legislators and officials to decide rapidly and to do what makes sense quickly. My sense of urgency comes from having customers to serve and bills to pay. My top priority is to improve the prosperity of workers without expanding the burden of government. That is, to do the decent thing.

will hire the best and seize opportunities. I listen and learn. Government can't solve your problems—but it can earn your respect.

STATEWIDE SPECIAL ELECTION
CANDIDATE STATEMENT FORM

Candidate's Name: Sharon Rushford

Candidate Statement (250 word limit):

In 1998 my husband had his leg amputated by the state's largest HMO instead of being tested and given medication for his condition. As a result I became actively involved in health care reform and reform of the mandatory arbitration system. I have turned our family's tragedy into the positive work of reforming California into a government and health system of which we can once again be proud.

Every Californian needs quality, dependable, and honest health care. The public needs to be assured that their healthcare is more important than an HMO's cost savings. My goal is to bring justice into managed healthcare in California.

I am Vice-President, Chief Financial Officer and Corporate Secretary of our 21-year-old construction business. I am a member of the Kaiser Permanente Reform Committee as well as a Board Member of the Managed Care Reform Council. This has lead to my being the Santa Clara County Representative for supervising Petition Circulators for The Voluntary Health Plan Arbitration Act of 2004 (see <http://CTVHPAA.com>) a statewide initiative to reform mandatory arbitration in California; too late for our family, still in time for yours.

Naturally, any new governor will first need to step up to the deplorable state of the economy, as we have drifted from budget surplus to terrible budget deficit.

As Governor, you can count on my experience, business principles, and fierce determination to effect change in this State. We can make it better for all. I look forward to being your next Governor
